NEW RELEASE - NOVEMBER 2026

SELLING POINTS

- Beethoven's most iconic piano repertoire, including the Appassionata and the late Op. 109

- Gianluca Cascioli brings a distinctive voice to works that continue to fascinate pianists and audiences worldwide

In this recording, Gianluca Cascioli explores Beethoven through a dialogue between an historical instrument and the musical text itself. Drawing on original sources and contemporary accounts, he seeks neither reconstruction nor tradition, but a renewed understanding of the works' inner logic. From the dramatic architecture of the 'Appassionata' to the visionary language of Op. 109 and the concentrated poetry of the Bagatelles Op. 126, these performances aim to reveal Beethoven's music with freshness, clarity and expressive depth.
