CHILDREN FIRST

Children First.
The children of today are the grown-ups of tomorrow.

All Of These Things
looks to images of nature to describe love's boundless beauty.

I Love You By Heart.
This song is for the many children thirsting for someone to care.

Move By Love.
Love is the fulcrum for which Archimedes was searching....

Morning Song.
A child greets each new day with a sense of wonder and adventure.

Circus.
The world is a circus and the magic is always there if we look and remember.
Listen and you'll go there...

You Are Not Alone.
Simple, pure things all children are entitled to... love, appreciation, and the promise of protection.

Song for a Child.
Hope for the unknown child.

You Can Change The World.
This aria is a tribute to every heart that transforms the world.

Oceanic.
In this song the ocean is saluted as a musical metaphor for the interconnectivity of life.

Evening Song.
The twilight calls and wraps us in her sweet embrace.

Requiem.
Unconditional love for the lost once.

Heavens Lullaby.
And so to sleep with dreams of a brighter day.
