*"When Tafelmusik Chamber Choir
is at the top of their game,
there are few similar ensembles
on Earth that can touch them."*

The Globe and Mail

*"The Tafelmusik orchestra has built,
in its special field,
a reputation as solid as those of the New York or Berlin philharmonics."*

TAFELMUSIK

Hailed as "one of the world's top baroque orchestras" by Gramophone Magazine, Tafelmusik was founded in 1979 by Kenneth Solway and Susan Graves. At the heart of Tafelmusik is a group of talented and dynamic permanent members, each of whom is a specialist in historical performance practice. In June of 2014, Music Director Jeanne Lamon stepped down from Tafelmusik after 33 remarkable years at the helm.

The Tafelmusik Chamber Choir was founded by director Ivars Taurins in 1981 as a complement to the Tafelmusik Baroque Orchestra. Specializing in baroque and classical repertoire and performance practice, the choir has been described as "the best period-performance choir anywhere in the world" by The Globe and Mail.

Delighting audiences worldwide for more than three decades, Toronto-based Tafelmusik reaches millions of people through its touring, critically-acclaimed recordings, broadcasts, new media, and artistic/community partnerships. The vitality of Tafelmusik's vision clearly resonates with its audiences in Toronto, where the orchestra performs more than 50 concerts every year for a passionate and dedicated following. For 35 years Tafelmusik has maintained a strong presence on the world stage, performing in some 350 cities in 32 countries.

Tafelmusik has released over 80 CDs and has been awarded numerous international recording prizes, including nine JUNO Awards. In 2012 Tafelmusik created its own label, Tafelmusik Media, and has released a number of new and past recordings. Film projects have included both documentaries and performances, including DVD releases on the Tafelmusik Media label of our ground-breaking Galileo Project and House of Dreams concerts, and of our ever-popular Sing-Along Messiah.
