

STRINGS

(4:12)

You got me drawing long circles around you
You got me claiming my territory
Don't make me wanna start something new
I did it all for the pain and glory

Now you got me wondering
Running 'round searching for you
I should have seen it coming
You didn't know that I was coming back late
You really didn't have to leave me that way

We never know what we're looking for
But we're looking
We never know what we're looking for
(Waiting for nothing it's only for you)
But we're looking
If you saw my face in a crowded place
Would you know my name
Would you remember where you came from boy
Or just dance with the one that you love
With the one that you love

Caught you leaving late last night
Said you can't sleep you're going out
She'll never love you
She'll never have our energy
Just make sure you hide her carefully

Now you got me wondering
Running 'round searching for you
I should have seen it coming
You didn't know that I was coming back late
You really didn't have to leave me that way

We never know what we're looking for
But we're looking
We never know what we're looking for
(Waiting for nothing it's only for you)
But we're looking
If you saw my face in a crowded place
Would you know my name
Would you remember where you came from boy
Or just dance with the one that you love

If you saw my face in a crowded place
Would you know my name
Or just dance with the one that you love

I WOULD LOSE MY MIND

(3:44)

I would rather die
Than think of you with someone else
I would lose my mind
If I was anything but crazy in love
No you didn't even...

No you didn't even try
No words of comfort
No tears of pain
No I never saw you cry
I guess that you are not to blame
No you didn't even try
And now it's slowly washing away
Am I the only one to cry
I guess that you are not to blame

I would rather die
Than giving any piece of you away
Live in a beautiful life

If I had to deceive my heart to say
No you didn't even
Live in a beautiful life

No you didn't even try
No words of comfort
No tears of pain
No I never saw you cry
I guess that you are not to blame
No you didn't even try
And now it's slowly washing away
Am I the only one to cry
I guess that you are not to blame

Oh love it's always the same
You never take the blame

No you didn't even try
No words of comfort
No tears of pain
No I never saw you cry
I guess that you are not to blame
No you didn't even try
And now it's slowly washing away
Am I the only one to cry
I guess that you are not to blame

LOST BOI

(3:34)

Who is inside you my love
Got nothing to say (nothing to say)
This is the mystery of all the ages (all the ages)
So this is my lesson
I'll never listen
I'll never leave
Well enough alone

Take what you want from other girls
I know that you're just a lost boy
Treat them like they're you're little toys
Oh I know you're scared that you lost her (lost her)

Who is inside you my love
I'm not a foe, I'm a friend
If you never let me in
It's the beginning of the end
So this is my lesson
I'll never listen
I'll never leave
Well enough alone

Take what you want from other girls
I know that you're just a lost boy
Treat them like they're you're little toys
Oh I know you're scared that you lost her (lost her)

I AM MY ONLY LOVE

(4:58)

I am my only love (x2)
No one I'm thinking of
I am my only love
I was born to run
Running back again (running back again)
Oh look at what I've done
I am my only love
Everything goes around
Comes back again
Oh look at what I've found
Baby I am my my only friend
Oh, running back again
Oh, you're my only love
I am my only love (x2)
No one I'm thinking of
I am my only love

Oh why don't you?
Take it from me
Would you wait for me
I'm down on my knees

When it's said and done
Life has just begun
Time will set me free
I am all I need
Nobody holds me up
Nobody holds me down
When everything falls apart
I got my only heart

Oh why don't you?
Take it from me
Would you wait for me
I'm down on my knees

LIFT

(4:54)

You lift me up
When I was down
Slept on your couch
Never push me out
Take everything
That you ever know
In a time like this
When you're curled up alone
In a dirty town
On a pitched up street
Take a big old box
Put it all underneath
Takin' all my love
And my whole life
It's in my heart

It's a song to lift you up
When you are down
Song to turn you around
As long as you call me
As long as you..
It's a song to lift you up
When you are down
Song to turn you around
As long as you call me
As long as you...

Here's the key
When the police come
Drag you on your feet
Push on your tongue
All my life
And I can't remember
There's a thousand miles coming

And I'm already dated
Never went far
When I was dumb
You broke my heart
I still come back around
Gave you everything
And all my love

It's a song to lift you up
When you are down
Song to turn you around
As long as you call me
As long as you..
It's a song to lift you up
When you are down
Song to turn you around
As long as you call me
As long as you...

THANKS

Thank you Constance – for always believing we could make this project a reality. Thank you for helping me find my voice and a platform to share it on.

TO THE WOMEN OF THE WORLD,
