Release 31 July

Even When He is Silent manifests choral singing at the very highest level. The ensemble Nordic Vocalists with conductor Patrik Sandin consists of twelve professional singers and at Footprint Records, we are proud to present the ensemble's first production.

This magnificent album contains first time recordings of music by three Swedish composers: Anna-Karin Klockar, Ingunn Ligaarden and the late Sven-David Sandström. Sandström is a giant in Swedish contemporary choral music and is respresented here by two – not previously recorded – works: Psalm 121 and Seventeenth Century Nun's Prayer. The lyrics for the latter were found written on a wall in a monestry by an anonymous nun.

Also the title track, Even When He is Silent, is a text written by an anonymous person. It was found after World War 2 on a wall in an underground room in Cologne. The room was a hiding place for Jewish refugees and deals with hope in the darkest hour.

Lyrics used in the compositions by Klockar and Ligaarden are by Swedish and American poets. All Swedish lyrics are translated to English in the iTunes Booklet.

Two songs will be released on July 17: Limu, Limu Lima and Hope Is the Thing With Feathers.

The album is available in Dolby Atmos.
