Pianist Kay Kyung Eun Kim, prize-winner of the 6th Mozart International Piano Competition, debuts on the Steinway & Sons label with a collection of piano music by New York composers Brian Field, John Corigliano and Philip Glass. Field's Three Passions for our Tortured Planet was written for Kim in 2019 and was composed to spread the word about climate change through music. Kim's powerful performances bring out the raw beauty of these works.

*"A warm and sensitive, dynamic and fearless pianist."
