CELEBRATING 30 YEARS TOGETHER

LEGENDS

The name Canadian Brass long ago reached legendary status in the musical world, as have the extraordinary performers, past and present, brought together for this recording. Although the Canadian Brass took the concert world by storm with its engaging presentation style, it has been their serious and meticulous attention to musical detail that has put them in league with the great string quartets and chamber ensembles that preceded them. This ensemble has become the gold standard for brass artistry and the authority for great brass repertoire.

The compositions featured on LEGENDS are absolutely essential to appreciating the Canadian Brass legacy. From Copland's thrilling Fanfare to the newly commissioned Golyardes' Grounde, each included work plays an important role in the history of Canadian Brass. Barber's emotionally charged Adagio and Mozart's Ave Verum explore the passion of the solo horn, while In Dulci Jubilo displays the brilliance of the Brass' trumpets.

The group virtually invented the "double brass quintet" in the early '80s with their guests, the Berlin Philharmonic Brass. They went on to record and perform with the Boston Symphony, New York Philharmonic and the Philadelphia Orchestra brass sections. From these experiences came In Nomine, Jubilate Deo, Laudate Dominum & Hymn, Earle of Oxford's March, Bells, and the Arrival of the Queen of Sheba.

Three solo works round out this CD. In Ryan's hands, the famous test-piece for sopranos, the Queen of the Night aria, becomes a showpiece of incredible virtuosity on the piccolo trumpet. Joe's interpretation of the toreador's song, La Virgen de la Macarena, is a tour de force, taking this work to new heights. And Penny Lane... Ryan has become renowned for performing this work. While difficult enough as a full-length solo (unlike the short original), Ryan even adds a quote from Bach's dangerous-for-trumpeters Brandenburg Concerto No. 2, as well as the feared octave high-C leap from Strauss' Zarathustra!

Combining music which represents several centuries of the highest musical art tradition along with the performers who have made a significant contribution to our cultural heritage has produced LEGENDS.
